I Bought a House!

Well, actually more like an apartment. As many of you now know, I plan to stay in Papua New Guinea six months longer than originally planned and then, Lord willing, return after a short furlough. I love Papua New Guinea. I love eternal springtime, I love the relationships I've built, and I love the potential lives changed by the translated Word of God. Since this is looking more permanent, I decided to find a more permanent place to live. I have bought an apartment here in Ukarumpa.

There are many things I enjoy about this apartment. It is actually a house that has been split into three different apartments. This means I'm still very close to other single women, but I have my own personal living space. It is in the center of the mission compound which means I'm never too far from anything. Since we walk everywhere, that's a huge plus for me. I have an orange tree in the backyard that is the envy of all my neighbors. But my most favorite part is the trap door that leads to the ground level storage room. It makes me feel as giddy as a kid every time I have to go through that floor door.

There have been a lot of ups and downs since arriving here in Papua New Guinea, but I can tell you one thing. I feel called here. I love what I do and I love who I serve and plan to continue to serve here until He calls me elsewhere. Thank you for all your prayers!

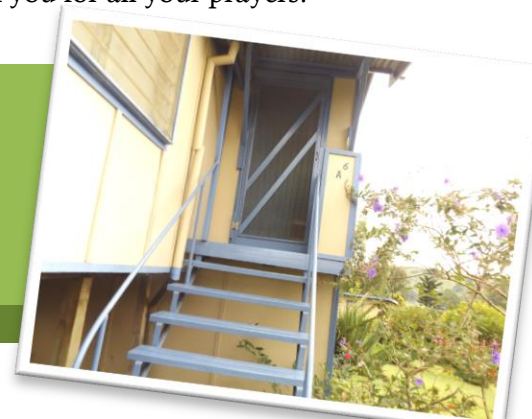

Prayer Requests

Partnership

In order to continue here in Papua New Guinea I have to be at 100% of prayer and financial partnership. Please keep this in your prayers as Wycliffe evaluates my partnership and while partners evaluate their commitment.

Financial Office Volunteers

Ukarumpa is in desperate need of volunteers to help in the financial department. This work keeps the entire branch running. Please pray that God would raise up and send the right people.
